St. James's, October 16.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Clergy, of the County of Buckingham, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Clergy, of the County of Buckingham, in Quarter Seſſions aſſembled, beg Leave moſt reſpectfully to lay at your Majeſty's Feet our ſincere and warmeſt Congratulations on the happy Delivery of the Queen, and the auſpicious Birth of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

We are ſo habituated to look up to the Illuſtrious Houſe of Brunſwick, as the glorious Protectors of our Freedom, and the Bulwark of the Liberties of Europe, that we cannot but deem every Addition to it, under God, a farther Security of all that is dear and valuable to us as Engliſhmen.

We therefore anticipate, with the higheſt Exultation and Delight, the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign, hereby, we truſt, tranſmitted, in a future, but, we hope, diſtant Day, to our Poſterity.

What hath not the riſing Generation to expect from a Prince thus deſcended from a King born and educated amongſt us, the Friend to Liberty, the Delight of His People: And from a Queen, whoſe Talents, and whoſe Virtues, have already endeared Her to this Country, where they are as univerſally recognized, as Her Birth is Illuſtrious, and Her Intereſts inſeparable from thoſe of your Majeſty and of your Kingdoms.

We have the further Honour and Satisfaction, at this Juncture, to congratulate your Majeſty on the late truly glorious Succeſs of your Arms in the Reduction of the Havannah, and the conſequential Surrender of ſo many Capital Ships of War belonging to the Enemy, whereby the Whole of the Spaniſh and French Weſt Indies, together with the Trade and Riches of the united Houſe of Bourbon, are left entirely at the Mercy of a combined Force, which Union, Courage, and Capacity, have rendered irreſiſtable.

Theſe important Events are more eſpecially welcome at this Time, as they muſt naturally, in their Conſequences, tend to accelerate the Bleſſings of an honourable Peace, on ſtable and commercial Foundations, adequate to our manifold Victories, and to the juſt Expectations of your Subjects, thereby ſecuring Solidity and Permanency to great National Advantages, and to that Splendor of Glory, which hath ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed the Cloſe of your Royal Grandfather's, and the auſpicious Commencement of your Majeſty's Reign, over a brave and loyal People.

No. 16

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Eſſex, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Eſſex, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Chelmsford, in and for the ſaid County, the Fifth Day of October, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty Two, humbly offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on the Birth of a Prince, and on the happy Recovery of the Queen; Events ever dear to us, as they open a new Scene of Domeſtick Satisfaction to your Majeſty, and promiſe a Continuance of publick Happineſs to your People.

We are truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings derived to this Nation from the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe: We look back, with Gratitude and Reverence, on the Protectors and Guardians of our Civil and Religious Liberties: We rejoice, with the preſent Age, in the Preſervation of our Rights, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government; and we congratulate Poſterity, on the pleaſing Proſpect of their Permanence and Stability. A Prince and Princeſs, eminently diſtinguiſhed for their early Attachment to Religion and Virtue, cannot fail to infuſe the ſame Sentiments into their Family. May your Majeſty's paternal Care and Sollicitude meet with the tendereſt Returns of filial Piety and Affection; and may the Father of His Country long continue to reign glorioufly over the Hearts of a free, loyal and dutiful People.

It would be unpardonable in us not to ſeize the preſent Occaſion that ſo favourably offers, of congratulating your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms at the Havannah, which, we perſwade ourſelves, is the more agreeable to your Majeſty, who has always the Intereſt of your Subjects at Heart, as it furniſhes your Majeſty with a freſh Opportunity of procuring them a ſafe, honourable, and laſting Peace.

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Cambridge, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County of Cambride, the Eighth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Cambridge, beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty our ſincereſt Congratulations on an Event which ſo nearly concerns the whole Nation, as well as your Majeſty, the happy Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of a Prince, Heir to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms; on a Day diſtinguiſhed before in our Annals by the Acceſſion of your Illuſtrious Houſe to the Throne, under whoſe moſt juſt and legal Government we have enjoyed all the Advantages of that excellent Conſtitution, which they were called in to preſerve.

As the Happineſs, whether private or publick, of Sovereigns, like your Majeſty, extends itſelf to their Subjects in general, we are confident, that no Event could be more intereſting to them, than this early Completion of their moſt ardent Wiſhes, by which your Majeſty's domeſtick Satisfaction, and the future Proſperity of your People, are equally promoted.

For ourſelves, Sir, we have nothing further to deſire, than that your Majeſty's Days may be extended to the utmoſt Period of human Life; nor can we form any Wiſh more auſpicious for our Poſterity, than that the Prince may long reap the Benefit of your Paternal Care and Inſtructions, and the Influence of your Example, to qualify him to diſcharge the Duties of the exalted Station to which he is born, with the ſame Juſtice, Goodneſs, and inviolable Regard to the Conſtitution, which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh your Majeſty's Reign.

Permit us, Sir, to take Notice of the ſingular Coincidence of two Events of the higheſt Conſequence, though in different Lights, to your Majeſty and this Nation, the Birth of a Prince, and the Conqueſt of the Havannah and its Dependencies. By the former your Majeſty's Throne is ſtrengthened; by the latter, the Pride of your Enemies is humbled, and their Power diminiſhed.

We moſt heartily congratulate your Majeſty on this laſt glorious Effort of Britiſh Valour, directed by Commanders, who have done themſelves as much Honour by the Harmony with which they have carried on ſo important a Service, as by the Skill, Spirit, and Perſeverance, which they have diſplayed in bringing it to the wiſhed-for Iſſue.

May Divine Providence ſtill crown your Majeſty's Reign with ſuch diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings; and may your Majeſty ſoon reap the Fruits of this, and all our former Succeſſes, in the Eſtabliſhment of an honourable and laſting Peace; the only Object of a juſt War, and the beſt Iſſue to be expected from a moſt proſperous one, which has brought annual Returns of Conqueſt, and advanced the Glory of theſe Kingdoms beyond that of former Ages.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the Town, and County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of the Town, and County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE cannot but embrace, with the higheſt Satisfaction, the glorious Opportunity, which the Reduction of the Havannah affords us, to repeat our Congratulations to your Majeſty upon the Succeſs attending the Valour of your Fleets and Armies, in the Support of an upright Cauſe, and the Vindication of the Rights of your Majeſty's Crown; not entertaining the leaſt Doubt, but through your Majeſty's Wiſdom, ſuch important Conqueſts muſt compel our moſt inveterate Enemies into a Peace ſafe and honourable to theſe Kingdoms, the ſole Point, we are perſuaded, which your Majeſty deſires to accompliſh by your Arms.

Given under our Common Seal the Eleventh Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty two.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Hertford, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy of the County of Hertford, aſſembled at Hertford, on Monday the 4th Day of October, 1762.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WITH joyful Hearts we (beg Leave to) felicitate your Majeſty on the Birth of a Prince, and the perfect Eſtabliſhment of the Health of our moſt gracious Queen, your Royal Conſort.

From this happy Event, we preſage that our Religion, our Laws, our Liberties, and every Thing eſſentially dear to Britiſh Subjects, will, by Means of your Royal Race, remain ſecurely fixed on the ſolid Baſis of our preſent happy Conſtitution both in Church and State.

Permit us at the ſame Time to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of your Fleets and Armies, in the important Conqueſt of the Havannah, (and all its Dependencies) an Event which we hope will be productive of every good Conſequence to your Majeſty, and theſe Kingdoms.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir James Daſhwood, Bart. their High Steward, and one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Oxford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with our ſincereſt Congratulations upon an Event not more auſpicious to your own domeſtick Happineſs, than to the Welfare and Proſperity of your People.

The Birth of a Prince, the Heir of your Illuſtrious Houſe, cannot but greatly encreaſe the preſent Felicity of theſe Nations, by giving us the moſt pleaſing Proſpect of continuing, to our lateſt Poſterity, thoſe Bleſſings which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh your Majeſty's Reign.

Permit us, Sir, at the ſame Time, to expreſs our moſt grateful Senſe of the Goodneſs of Divine Providence, which has bleſſed your Nuptial bed with the moſt endearing Pledge of Conjugal Affection, and reſtored your Royal Conſort to the Enjoyment of Her former Health.

We indulge ourſelves in the higheſt Confidence, that a Prince, born of ſuch Illuſtrious Parents, educated under the Inſpection, and formed by the Example, of ſuch conſummate Virtue, will, in ſome future Time, add Luſtre to the Imperial Throne, and diffuſe Happineſs and Glory to a Free, Brave, and Grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal at our Council-Chamber, the Seventeenth Day of September, in the Second Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants, of the City of Rocheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Admiral Townſend, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants, of your ancient City of Rocheſter, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the auſpicious Birth of a Prince.

This Event, ſo conducive to the private Felicity of your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, (the conſtant Object of our warmeſt Wiſhes) and at the ſame Time ſo eſſential to the future Happineſs of your People, has filled us with the ſincereſt Joy, and raiſed in us the moſt ſanguine Expectations of the Bleſſings our Poſterity may enjoy, under a Prince formed by your Majeſty's Tuition and Example.

May His Royal Highneſs long experience your Majeſty's Paternal Care; and late, very late, may your Majeſty tranſmit to him your Crown, and with it, its brighteſt Ornament, the united Hearts of a free and faithful People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twelfth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Gentry, Clergy and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Ripon, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Ripon, together with the Gentry, Clergy and Burgeſſes thereof, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the ſafe and happy Delivery of the Queen, and the auſpicious Birth of a Prince. An Event moſt earneſtly wiſhed for by all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, and which, we promiſe ourſelves, will ſecure to theſe Kingdoms the moſt ineſtimable Bleſſings, and, if poſſible, ſtill more endear your Majeſty to your happy Subjects. May his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, under the glorious Influence of your Majeſty's Example, poſſeſs every noble, every princely Virtue; and may your Majeſty's Reign be long, proſperous, and glorious; and may there never be wanting on the Britiſh Throne, one of your Majeſty's Royal Race, who may inherit all your Virtues, and tranſmit the Happineſs and Security to Poſterity, which we ſo fully enjoy under the gracious and happy Government of the moſt amiable and beſt of Kings.
